Handwork of An Edgefield Artist.

The local lodge of the Masonic fraternity, some weeks ago, engaged Edgefield's gifted artist, Miss Eliza Mims, to paint a portrait of Past Grand Master Orlando Sheppard, with the view of presenting it to the Grand Lodge of South Carolina at its annual communication in Charleston early in December. The portrait has been completed and can be seen in Ramsey & Jones' jewelry window. It is natural, realistic, in short, a speaking likeness of Mr. Sheppard. Edgefield will be honored by having this portrait of her distinguished son grace the walls of the Masonic Temple along with others whose names have also been written high in the annals of the fraternity.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Hon. J. C. Sheppard spent Monday in Augusta on business.

Hear the Ariel Quartet in the opera house to-night.

November has this year been wondrous kind to wood buyers.

Santa Claus will come in less than thirty days. When will Jack Frost come?

We have been requested to announce that the banks and all of the stores will be closed to-morrow, Thanksgiving day.

We extend a cordial welcome to our Pleasant Lane correspondent. Read the first of our young friends letters in this issue.

Mr. Wallace Prescott went out with his father, Dr. W. E. Prescott, on Saturday last to spend Sunday at the old home.

On the 19th of last November we had sleet and snow. It is now nearly December and a killing frost has not yet appeared.

Mr. James A. Dozier, leading salesman of the shoe department of the J. B. White establishment of Augusta, spent Sunday last in Edgefield.

If every hunter bags a bird to-morrow for every empty shell left upon the field, not a lark, jay or sparrow, to say nothing of the partridge, will be left to tell the tale of the slaughter.

The governor offers $100. reward for the apprehension and conviction of the person who burned the gin house of Wesley Yonce. Read the proclamation in this issue.

Rev. P. P. Blalock preached an unusually strong sermon from the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sunday morning last. On Sunday night he preached at the Mill Chapel.

After the adjournment of Sessions Court on Wednesday last, Judge C. G. Dantzer returned to his home at Orangeburg and remained till Monday morning, arriving in time for the opening of the Court of Common Pleas.

Mr. John Davis, baggage master on the Gap road, is acting as conductor this week, vice Capt. Rice, who is off duty for a few days. Mr. Edgar A. Fuller, who is known to all Edgefield, is acting as baggage master.

Some men will get up at 1 o'clock in the morning to go to a fire but these selfsame men would kick like mules if they were asked to get up at 6 o'clock to kindle a fire in the cook stove.

Miss Ida Mae McGee, a charming and very accomplished young lady, of Greenville, arrived yesterday to spend the winter with her cousin, Miss Curran Hartley. Edgefield always welcomes Miss McGee most cordially.

Treasurer Williams again gives notice that all taxes are due and payable not later than Dec. 31st. Should you neglect to pay and the penalty is added do not blame him. Read his notice in another column.

The outlook for small grain is so far unusually encouraging. The stand is good, color indicates a healthy growth and if the growth beneath the surface has been as rapid as it has been above, the tender plant has gained sufficient root to withstand a great deal of cold.

A STARTLING SURPRISE.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadly, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year. They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them, only 50c. at G. L. PENN & SONS, drug store.

Some who have been close observers through several decades predict that the winter that is just before us will be a mild one. The shuck on corn is thinner than usual and the moss on trees indicates that nature, usually very provident, has not made provision for extremely cold weather.

To Grow Big Crops of Grain or Cotton use Armour's Animal Fertilizers. For sale by A. E. & R. C. PADGETT.

The most careful tests are necessary to determine just what your eyes need. Each eye needs separate scientific examinations. If you'll drop in I will examine your eyes and if necessary will have a lens made for each eye.

GEO. T. MIMS, Graduate Optician.

ASLEEP AMID FLAMES. Breaking into a blazing home some firemen lately dragged the sleeping inmates from death. Fancied security and death near. It's that way when you neglect coughs and colds. Don't do it. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption gives perfect protection against all throat, chest and lung troubles. Keep it near and avoid suffering, death and doctor's bills. A teaspoonful stops a late cough, persistent use the most stubborn. Harmless and nice tasting. It's guaranteed by G. L. PENN & SON. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Read the new locals of W. E. Lynch & Co. Their goods and prices are right.

Mrs. Beauregard Timmons left yesterday for Washington, D. C. where she goes for medical treatment.

Mr. M. C. Parker and family have removed from their country home to their beautiful residence on Columbia street.

G. L. Penn & Son speak to the Edgefield people in this issue of the nice things they have in store for them. Read their locals.

Mrs. Otis Prentiss, of Troy, S. C., after spending several days with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Peak, returned to her home on yesterday.

The county board will elect a dispenser and assistant dispenser on Friday, the 28th inst., to serve for the twelve months beginning January first. We are informed that there are four applicants for the dispenser's place.

Rev. T. P. Burgess, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Ninety Six, will preach in our Presbyterian church on Sunday morning next and at Trenton in the afternoon. We trust that a large congregation will greet Rev. Mr. Burgess who comes among us for the first time.

Let the church going people of our town bear in mind the sessions of the Union meeting to be held in the Baptist church on Saturday and Sunday next. The discussions of the queries will be a source of pleasure and profit to all who attend.

During carnival week in August Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Holder entertained a number of their Edgefield friends with a delightful house party. Among their guests (as chronicled by the Augusta Herald) were Miss Miller, Miss Fair, Miss Wise, Mrs. Wise, Senator B. R. Tillman and B. R. Tillman, Jr., of Trenton, S. C. also Mrs. S. T. Holder and Miss Thurmond of the Meriwether section.

Mr. E. A. Burdett, the Philadelphia capitalist, who has spent months or more in Edgefield during the last two winters, is expected to arrive to-day, accompanied by several of his friends. He will probably spend several months at Edgewood. Having secured the Pickens estate as a hunting preserve he will have an excellent field for training his fine dogs. The gates of Edgewood stand wide open to that type of northern gentlemen which Mr. Burdett represents.

Court Proceedings.

On going to press last week the case of the State vs Hudson was being tried. It resulted in a mistrial but has since been settled. The next case that of the State vs Geo. Martin, indicted for arson; guilty and sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary.

Sessions court adjourned sine die on Wednesday.

Court of Common Pleas convened on Monday. As we go to press (Tuesday afternoon) the case of Butler Abney vs Southern railway is being tried. There are several railroad cases that will likely consume the entire week.

If you are not using our teas and coffees try them once and you will use no other. For delightful aroma and flavor they are unsurpassed. Call for our White Star coffee.

Pictures Framed.

There is nothing more attractive to the human eye than a beautiful framed picture. This you can have done in the latest style, also old frames made new by the latest methods at my furniture store 1136 Broad street, Augusta, Ga.

W. H. TURNER.

Don't miss the lyceum entertainment in the opera house to night.

Advertised Letters.

List of letters remaining in the Postoffice at Edgefield, S. C., week ending Nov. 24, 1902:

Mr. Sam'l Barnes, Miss Millie Coleman, J. H. Garrett, Mrs. Nanie Jackson, Mrs. Mary Weaver.

When asking for letters on this list say "advertised."

W. H. BRUNSON, P. M.

STARTLING, BUT TRUE.

"If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr. King's New Life Pills is," writes Dr. H. Turner, Dempsie, Pa., "you'd sell all you have in a day. Two weeks' use has made a new man of me." Infallible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c at G. L. Penn & Son's drug store.

At Cold Spring.

Thanksgiving day will be observed here. The ladies will be served dinner for 25 cents. The public is cordially invited.

Thanksgiving Service.

Tomorrow morning from 11 to 12 o'clock there will be services at the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Geo. W. Davis. A collection for the Epworth orphanage, Columbia, will be asked for. This is a worthy institution and it is desired that a liberal contribution be given to the little orphanage. Remember the command, "Feed my lambs."

Opera House To-night.

But few small towns are so fortunate as to have such attractions as the Ariel Quartet visit them. Our little city would not be among the fortunate ones had not some of our leading citizens guaranteed the cost of the attraction to the Alkhest Lyceum. Four beautiful young ladies will present a varied program in the opera house to-night (Wednesday) each number of which is worth the price of admission. Lovers of music, song, recitation and persuasion cannot afford to miss this lyceum attraction.

Presentment of the Grand Jury.

EDGEFIELD, S. C., Nov. 18, 1902.

To His Honor, C. G. Dantzer, Judge Presiding at the November Term of Court, 1902.

Having passed on the several Bills of Indictment handed us by the Solicitor, we beg to submit the following report:

The committee appointed from our body to examine the books of the several offices of the County has reported to us as follows: In the Master's office they find on deposit in the Farmers Bank of Edgefield the sum of $2174.94; and in the Bank of Edgefield $1505.86. This money on deposit, they find, is drawing no interest. We recommend that this money be put on interest. The total amount, on deposit, is $3,680.80, and is $14.88 in excess of what is called for by the Master's books. They report further that the Master's books are neatly and accurately kept.

"In the Judge of Probate's office they find on deposit in the Bank of Edgefield, $410.13, and in the Farmers Bank of Edgefield $195.86. With the exception of the latter amount, they find that the money is drawn no interest. We recommend that this money be also placed on interest; and that the interest on the money in both the Master's and the Judge of Probate's offices be for the benefit of the minor heirs to whom the principal amounts will eventually belong. The books in the Judge of Probate's office, our committee reports to be also properly and neatly kept.

The following items, taken from the Auditor's and Treasurer's books by our Committee, we include in this report for information: Receipts for State purposes, $17526.96, for ordinary county purposes, $4021.67.

Fees for School purposes,	$10,516.18.
Fees,	$3,168.00.
Money borrowed,	$9,800.
Fines and Licenses from Clerk of Court,	$215.60.
Magistrates Courts,	$142.70.
Dispensary Profits,	$2,290.21.
Beer Dispensary,	$119.75.
State Dispensary for School Fund,	$1,323.83.
Commutation Tax,	$2,580.30.
Total,	$61,116.16.

Expenditures.

Paid State Treasurer,	$16,300.96.
School Warrants,	$14,942.20.
County Commissioners,	$29,267.84.
Uncollected Taxes, including Penalty,	$416.30.
Cash on Hand,	$188.86.
Total,	$61,116.16.

Our committee reports that both these officers display great efficiency in the performance of their duties.

The voluminous accounts of the Supervisor's office prevented a full investigation of this officer's books. But the committee reports that their investigation extended far enough to satisfy them that their books were in proper shape.

The Sheriff's office, as usual, is in good shape. The condition of the Jail, and of the Court House, was reported on at the March term of Court.

The books and papers of the Clerk of Court's office are as neatly kept as is possible in the present condition of the office. Several Grand Jurors, previous to the present, have recommended the purchase of a safe for the Clerk's office. This has not been done, and we again recommend, and urge, that this matter have immediate attention and that a safe be placed in this office as early as possible.

The nature of the papers filed from time to time in the Clerk's office are of too great value to be exposed to the possibility of loss by theft or fire.

The committee appointed to examine the County Chain Gang, report that the Convicts and Stock are in good condition, and are doing good work, but, from their report we think it an extravagant expenditure in grading the new road from the Rambo place via S. B. Mays to the Norris place.

The committee to examine the County Home report everything in good condition, and inmates properly cared for.

Thanking His Honor, the Solicitor and County officials for courtesies extended,

Respectfully submitted,

P. C. STEVENS, Foreman.

The season of mild weather through which we have just passed has been more suggestive of spring tide than late autumn.

Proclamation.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER.

Whereas information has been received at this department that on the 15th day of November, A. D. 1902, the gin house and nine bales of cotton, together with the whole crop of cotton seed belonging to West Yonce in the county of Edgefield, was burned, and there being reason to believe that burning was an act of incendiarism, Now therefore, I, M. B. McSWENEY, governor of the state of South Carolina, in order that justice may be done, and the majesty of the law vindicated, do hereby offer a reward of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who committed said act of incendiarism.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed, at Columbia, this eighteenth day of Nov'r, A. D. 1902, and in the 127th year of the Independence of the United States of America.

M. B. McSWENEY,
